Staying true to their M.O. The Soul Surfers present another heavy 45 soul treat featuring Myron & E on the lead-off single from their much anticipated full-length album.

Make some more room in your 45 collection as the boys from Nizhny Novgorod, Russia have created another highly collectable 7in single, adding to their seemingly ever-expanding canon of sure-fire, raw soul and funk. This time around they brought along their good friends and fellow heavyweights Myron & E to lend their vocal talents. Inspired by classic 45's from the People catalog amongst many others, the tune is split into a part 1 and 2 because one side simply isn't enough to contain this much heat!

Look for the debut full-length Soul Surfers album to drop later in 2015 along with a possible US tour.
